

Proclamation

Rehabilitation Day

September 17, 2019

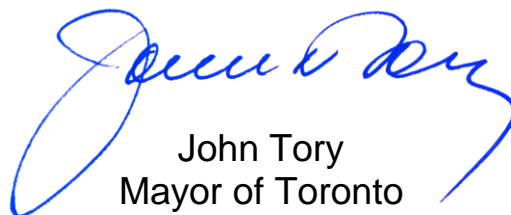

WHEREAS rehabilitation services have a life-changing impact on the lives of many people in our city.

Various kinds of rehabilitation services are offered in Toronto, to those recovering from injuries, those going through life-altering events, or as a result of age-related conditions. These important services enable people to learn how to live with their new circumstances and thrive in their everyday lives.

This is an important day to recognize and thank those who dedicate their lives to helping others through rehabilitation services.

The City of Toronto provides programs and services to meet the public health and safety needs of the city, communities and families. Prevention, education and communication are vital to creating healthy and safe communities, workplaces, schools and homes.

NOW THEREFORE, I Mayor John Tory, on behalf of Toronto City Council, do hereby proclaim September 17, 2019 as "Rehabilitation Day" in the City of Toronto.

John Tory
Mayor of Toronto
