

Speaker Biography

---

Colin Preyra, MA MSc PhD

Dr. Colin Preyra, Director of the Canadian Health Services Research Group, and Affiliate Scientist at the Institute for Clinical Evaluative Sciences is an experienced researcher and policy advisor. He specializes in the application of economic and statistical methods to financing, delivery and planning problems in the health care sector. His expertise includes development of risk and case mix adjustment systems, econometric cost analysis, and performance based contracting. He has been a member of, and advisor to, numerous multidisciplinary committees and is a reviewer for most leading Health Services Research journals. He holds graduate degrees in Statistics, Economics, and Health Care Management and Evaluation.