CONCURRENT SESSIONS SPEAKER:

Session 1:

Jacque Brown, MES, RSW is a consultant with the National Implementation Research Network. She has extensive experience in using implementation frameworks to support effective implementation of evidence-informed programmes and practices in complex systems.

Jacque brings 30 years of experience from an organisational perspective having been a senior manager in a large, dispersed, decentralised not-for-profit organisation. She also brings international experience as her most recent work includes supporting implementation in low and middle income countries.
